REUNION NOTES

During the last two days of the Encaenial Program six classes of U.N.B. graduates are holding reunions at the university. Graduates of 1917 reunite after 35 years; the class of 1927 is meeting to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of its graduation; the class of 1942 gathers on the occasion of its tenth year out from its Alma Mater; and the classes of 1946, 1947 and 1948 are holding a joint reunion to commemorate five years (on the average) since graduating.

Graduates and former students of many other classes are expected to visit the university during this period. They are asked to contact Mr. John C. Murray, Alumni secretary, Arts Building, sometime during their stay.

The Observatory Art Centre will feature the annual travelling exhibition of the Canadian Society of Painters in Watercolour—hours: 10 a.m.—5 p.m. daily.
