

One Hundred and Fifty-third Incaenia

Thursday 27th May

1982

Aitken University Centre

University of New Brunswick

Fredericton Campus

The audience is requested to stand when the Academic Procession arrives, to remain standing until the close of the Prayer of Invocation, and at the close of Encaenia, following the singing of O Canada, to remain until the Academic Procession has left.

Music for the One Hundred and Fifty-third Encaenia is by the Royal Canadian Regiment Band by kind permission of Brig. Gen. G. R. Cheriton, OMM, CD1, Base Commander, Combat Training Centre, Canadian Forces Base Gagetown, and under the direction of Captain D. W. Embree, CD.

Graduates, their guests and the public are cordially invited to the Encaenia Tea in Lady Dunn Hall immediately following the ceremony.

Although Latin has long ceased to be the language of instruction for all university courses, as it once was at Oxford and Cambridge, at Paris and Bologna, it is traditional to retain it for limited use on occasions of great academic solemnity, such as university convocations. The use of Latin today is a symbol of our academic descent from those earliest universities of medieval Europe and a humble reminder that the search for truth is both new and ancient.

DR. THOMAS J. CONDON
Vice-President (Saint John)
