Although Latin has long ceased to be the language of instruction for all university courses, as it once was at Oxford and Cambridge, at Paris and Bologna, it is traditional to retain it for limited use on occasions of great academic solemnity, such as university convocations. The use of Latin today is a symbol of our academic descent from these earliest universities of mediaeval Europe and a humble reminder that the search for truth is both new and ancient.

The Fall Convocation Exhibitions are

"Canada/Canada", a serigraphic exhibition by Jean Paul Lemieux of Montreal, on view in The Little Gallery (Ganong Hall),

"Street Scenes", a print exhibition by A. R. (Bob) Cooke of Saint John, on view in the University Student Centre.

The sketch on the front cover depicts the new University Student Centre as seen from the lower parking lot; connected at the right by the skywalk is the Athletics Centre.
