THE HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Douglas G. Lochhead

Doctor of Letters

Atlantic poet, Douglas Lochhead has been described as one of Canada's premier poets and spent a good portion of his career advancing the field of Canadian Studies. His career which has spanned more than half a century has seen the completion of more than two dozen collections of poetry.

Born in Guelph, Ontario in 1922, Douglas Lochhead started writing in the late 1930's after being encouraged to write poetry by a high school teacher at Glebe Collegiate Institute in Ottawa. In 1947, following time spent at McGill University, service in the Canadian artillery and infantry and completion of a Masters of Arts degree at the University of Toronto, Lochhead began to publish his poems in small literary magazines. After serving as a University librarian in Victoria, BC, Ithaca, NY and Halifax, NS, he published his first volume of poetry, The Heart is Fire, in 1959.

Since the publication of that first volume there has never been more than five years between Lochhead's collections. In the course of his distinguished career as the Librarian of York University and then Massey College in Toronto, and finally as the Director of Canadian Studies at Mount Allison University in Sackville, NB, Lochhead produced 24 volumes of poetry.

Following his retirement from Mount Allison in 1991, the author has lived in Sackville continuing to pursue his calling as a poet. He has received the Alden Nowlan Award for Excellence in English-language Literary Arts and he is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, a Member of the Order of Canada, a Professor Emeritus at Mount Allison University, Senior Fellow and Founding Librarian at Massey College, University of Toronto and a life member of the League of Canadian Poets.

ABOUT THE CONVOCATION CEREMONY

The Convocation Procession

The word "convocation" means "calling together," and UNB's convocation is truly a gathering of all individuals who are part of the University – students, professors, administrators, staff, alumni, families, and friends. The ceremony starts with the procession of students, special guests, faculty, members of the Senate and of the Board of Governors, the honorary degree recipient(s), the President and Vice-Chancellor, the Chancellor and the Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick.

The Stage

All of the formalities around convocation take place on the stage. The stage is occupied by the Lieutenant-Governor, representatives of the Federal, Provincial and Municipal governments, the University's Chancellor, the President and Vice-Chancellor, members of the University's Board of Governors, University officials such as Vice-Presidents, Deans and Directors, University alumni, those holding emeritus status and the honorary degree recipient(s). The flags at the side of the stage represent the countries that are home to the international students currently studying at UNB Saint John. The banners displayed on the stage represent the various faculties in which students may study at UNB Saint John.

Academic Dress

It is part of the ceremony to wear the academic dress of the institution. It is for this reason that all of the students wear the gown, hood and cap, as do most of the University's faculty and officials. At UNB Saint John, the University's alumni are also invited to wear their academic attire and join the procession.

Latin in the Ceremony

"Although Latin has long ceased to be the language of instruction for all university courses, it is traditional to retain it for limited use on occasions of great academic solemnity, such as university convocations. The use of Latin today is a symbol of our academic descent from these earliest universities of mediaeval Europe and a humble reminder that the search for truth is both new and ancient." (TJC)

The Ceremonial Mace

The mace symbolizes the authority of the University to award degrees. Introduced in 1996, UNB's ceremonial mace features an antique silver cup atop a wooden shaft. The George II two-handed cup was given to the University in 1995 by S.A.H. Bridge, the great-great-grandson of Sir Howard Douglas, Bart. Sir Howard, Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick from 1823 to 1831, was instrumental in gaining the University's Royal charter.

The shaft was created by New Brunswick artisan Michiel Oudemans. Crafted from butternut, a wood indigenous to the province, it features elements of the UNB coat of arms and symbols of New Brunswick: the University motto, Sapere aude (Dare to know); a book of learning; beavers (in honour of Lord Beaverbrook, the University's first modern-day Chancellor); a galley; fiddleheads; and Atlantic salmon. The mace is carried in the procession by the University Secretary.

ACADEMIC DRESS

All graduates and members of the academic procession are attired in the basic elements of academic dress – the academic robe, the hood and the mortar board or Tudor hat. The dress worn by each participant depends upon the academic level attained, with special attire for Bachelors, Masters and Doctors. While tradition has indicated the style or cut of the academic attire, each university amends certain details to suit its particular tastes and traditions. Following is a guide to UNB's ceremonial attire:

GOWNS

Undergraduates	Plain black stuff, sleeveless
Bachelors	Black stuff falling below knee, with full sleeves reaching to the wrist and terminating in a point
Masters	Black silk or stuff falling below knee, with long sleeves with semi-circular cut bottom
Doctors	Scarlet cloth, faced with silk of the same colour as the lining of the hood worn

With Special Thanks to

Cedarcrest Gardens, for providing the greenery for the stage

The University of New Brunswick Saint John makes every effort to ensure the accuracy of the graduation list in the Convocation program, however, we cannot guarantee that the names of those graduates who appealed after May 12 appear. Several students graduated from UNB Fredericton and have chosen to cross the stage at UNB Saint John's ceremony today. Their names, however, are not included in the graduation list printed in this program.
