G. FORBES ELLIOT ATHLETICS CENTRE

Spring Convocation

FRIDAY MAY 29, 2009

At the beginning of Convocation the audience is requested to stand when the Academic Procession arrives and to remain standing until the close of the Petition by the President. At the close of the Convocation ceremony, following the singing of O Canada, the audience should remain standing until the Academic Procession has left the stage.

Graduates are asked to remain in their seats until the Convocation ceremonies are completed as a sign of respect and consideration for their classmates.

Following the ceremony, all are welcome to attend the traditional Convocation Tea Reception in the Baird Dining Room of the Thomas J. Condon Student Centre.

Although Latin has long ceased to be the language of instruction for all university courses, as it once was at Oxford and Cambridge, at Paris and Bologna, we have retained it at UNB for limited use on occasions of great academic solemnity, such as university convocations. The use of Latin today is a symbol of our academic descent from those earliest universities of medieval Europe and a humble reminder that the search for truth is both ancient and new.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

Nancy Elaine Grant, Doctor of Science

Nancy Grant, a native of Woodstock, NB, holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Mount Allison University (1969) and a Medical Doctorate from Queen's University (1973). In 1993 she received her Master of Science in Administration from Central Michigan University. Currently, she is a radiation oncologist in the department of oncology at the Saint John Regional Hospital.

Dr. Grant has been a tireless advocate for end-of-life patients and their families. More than 25 years ago, she founded Hospice of Greater Saint John, a community-based non-profit organization that provides quality end-of-life care to patients and support to their loved ones. To accomplish this, she took an 18-month leave of absence from her professional practice to devote her full time and energy to its creation.

Over the years her volunteerism has extended beyond hospice to groups such as the Saint John Human Development Council, the Canadian Cancer Society, the Imperial Theatre, the New Brunswick Competitive Festival of Music, Symphony New Brunswick, and many others. She is an accomplished musician and plays the clarinet with the Saint Mary's Band.

Dr. Grant, a member of the Order of New Brunswick (2002), was named one of the Women's Executive Network's 100 most powerful women in Canada (2008), and was recognized by the Federation of University Women in its "Strong Women Campaign" (2009).

Robert Alexander (Alex) Neve, Doctor of Laws

Alex Neve was born in Calgary, Alberta, and is the Secretary General of Amnesty International Canada. He holds a Bachelor of Commerce (1984) and Bachelor of Laws degree (1987) from Dalhousie University. It was there that he was introduced to Amnesty International and discovered his passion for human rights law. In 1991, he received a Master of Law degree in International Human Rights Law from the University of Essex, United Kingdom.

He has held his current position since January 2000 and has been a member of Amnesty International for 20 years. He has worked for the organization nationally and internationally in a number of different roles, including research missions to Tanzania, Guinea, Mexico, Burundi, Colombia, Honduras, Zimbabwe, South Africa, Cote d'Ivoire and Ghana.

He has appeared before various United Nations human rights bodies, Canadian parliamentary committees, including the Maher Arar Commission, and has represented Amnesty International at numerous international meetings. He speaks and writes regularly in the national media on a range of human rights topics.

Alex Neve is the Chair of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Centre for International Justice, and a member of the Board of Directors of Partnership Africa Canada. In 2007, he was named a Trudeau Foundation Mentor and was appointed an Officer of the Order of Canada.

ABOUT THE CONVOCATION CEREMONY

The Convocation Procession

The word "convocation" means "calling together," and UNB's convocation is truly a gathering of all individuals who are part of the University – students, professors, administrators, staff, alumni, families and friends. The ceremony starts with the procession of students, special guests, faculty, members of the Senate and of the Board of Governors, the honorary degree recipient(s), the President and Vice-Chancellor, the Chancellor and the Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick.

The Stage

All of the formalities around convocation take place on the stage. The stage is occupied by the Lieutenant-Governor, representatives of the Federal, Provincial and Municipal governments, the University's Chancellor, the President and Vice-Chancellor, members of the University's Board of Governors, University officials such as Vice-Presidents, Deans, University alumni, those holding emeritus status and the honorary degree recipients. The flags at the side of the stage represent the countries that are home to the international students currently studying at UNB Saint John. The banners displayed on the stage represent the various faculties and/or schools in which students may study at UNB Saint John.

Academic Dress

It is part of the ceremony to wear the academic dress of the institution. It is for this reason that all of the students wear the gown, hood and cap, as do most of the University's faculty and officials. At UNB Saint John, the University's alumni are also invited to wear their academic attire and join the procession.

The Ceremonial Mace

The mace symbolizes the authority of the University to award degrees. Introduced in 1996, UNB's ceremonial mace features an antique silver cup atop a wooden shaft. The George II two-handled cup was given to the University in 1995 by S.A.H. Bridge, the great-great-grandson of Sir Howard Douglas, Bart. Sir Howard, Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick from 1823 to 1831, was instrumental in gaining the University's Royal charter.

The shaft was created by New Brunswick artisan Michiel Oudemans. Crafted from butternut, a wood indigenous to the province, it features elements of the UNB coat of arms and symbols of New Brunswick: the University motto, Sapere aude (Dare to know); a book of learning; beavers (in honour of Lord Beaverbrook, the University's first modern-day Chancellor); a galley; fiddleheads; and Atlantic salmon.

The mace is carried in the procession by the University Secretary.

President: I admit you to the degree of Master (Bachelor) in the University of New Brunswick.

ACADEMIC DRESS

All graduates and members of the academic procession are attired in the basic elements of academic dress – the academic robe, the hood, and the mortar board of Tudor hat. The dress worn by each participant depends upon the academic level attained, with special attire for Bachelors, Masters and Doctors. While tradition has indicated the style or cut of the academic attire, each university amends certain details to suit its particular tastes and traditions.

Following is a guide to UNB's ceremonial dress:

GOWNS

Undergraduates	Plain black stuff, sleeveless
Bachelors	Black stuff falling below knee, with full sleeves reaching to the wrist and terminating in a point
Masters	Black silk or stuff falling below knee, with long sleeves with semi-circular cut bottom
Doctors	Scarlet cloth, faced with silk of the same colour as the lining of the hood worn

With Special Thanks to

Mayfield Gardens and Landscape, for the donation of greenery for the stage

The University of New Brunswick Saint John makes every effort to ensure the accuracy of the graduation list in the Convocation program, however, cannot guarantee that the names of those graduates who appear after May 15, 2009 appear. Some students graduated from UNB Fredericton and have chosen to cross the stage at UNB Saint John's ceremony today. Their names, however, are not included in the graduation list printed in this program.
