Fall Convocation

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2012

At the beginning of Convocation the audience is requested to stand when the Academic Procession arrives and to remain standing until the close of the Opening by the President. At the close of the Convocation ceremony, following the singing of O Canada, the audience should remain standing until the Academic Procession has left the stage.

Graduates are asked to remain in their seats until the Convocation ceremony is completed as a sign of respect and consideration for their classmates.

Following the ceremony, all are welcome to attend the traditional Convocation Tea Reception at UNB Saint John's Grand Hall at 40 Charlotte Street.

Although Latin has long ceased to be the language of instruction for all university courses, as it once was at Oxford and Cambridge, at Paris and Bologna, we have retained it at UNB for limited use on occasions of great academic solemnity, such as university convocations. The use of Latin today is a symbol of our academic descent from those earliest universities of medieval Europe and a humble reminder that the search for truth is both ancient and new.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTVera Katz-Schiff, Doctor of Letters

Vera Katz-Schiff was born in Prague, Czechoslovakia in 1926.

In 1942, she, along with her father, mother, sister and grandmother, was deported to Theresienstadt, a Nazi concentration camp located in the city of Terezin, in what is now the Czech Republic. She was the lone survivor from her family, but would meet her future husband, Arthur Schiff, at that camp. During her three years of imprisonment, her family died from disease and deprivation. After surviving the horrors of a concentration camp, with incredible determination she has become a first-rate educator.

In 1996, Vera Katz-Schiff penned her memoirs in the award-winning book, Theresienstadt: the Town the Nazis gave to the Jews. In 2002, Vera's second book, Hitler's Inferno: Eight Personal Histories from the Holocaust, was published and in 2005, A Theresienstadt Diary: Letters to Veruska was published. Her detailed descriptions in evocative prose earned her the prestigious Elie Wiesel Writing Award. She recently partnered with a UNB Saint John professor to revise her previous works for on-line publication for Scholar's Pub, and to assist with work on additional manuscripts for publication.

Today, Vera Katz-Schiff is in demand as a speaker across Canada and the United States. In Canada, she has been involved in educational outreach programs run by the Sarah and Chaim Neuberger Holocaust Education Centre of Greater Toronto and the Centre of Regional Jewish Communities of Ontario. In 2005 and 2010, she participated in the 'March of the Living,' accompanying Canadian educators to the sites of Nazi concentration and death camps, recounting the tragedy of World War II.

Vera Katz-Schiff has received a number of awards including the Ontario Senior Achievement Award from the Ontario government, a Volunteer Recognition Award from the Ontario government for her work in small communities, and an Achievement Award from Canadian Friends of Yad Vashem and the Ontario government; awarded each year to Holocaust survivors who have contributed to the province of Ontario.

Vera has two sons, six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

ABOUT THE CONVOCATION CEREMONY

The Convocation Procession

The word "convocation" means "calling together," and UNB's convocation is truly a gathering of all individuals who are part of the University – students, professors, administrators, staff, alumni, families and friends. The ceremony starts with the procession of students, special guests, faculty, members of the Senate and the Board of Governors, the honorary degree recipient, the President & Vice-Chancellor, the Chancellor and the Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick.

The Stage

All of the formalities around convocation take place on the stage. The stage is occupied by the Lieutenant-Governor, representatives of the Federal, Provincial and Municipal governments, the University's Chancellor, the President & Vice-Chancellor, members of the University's Board of Governors, University officials such as Vice-Presidents, Deans and Directors, University alumni, those holding emeritus status and the honorary degree recipient. The flags at the back of the stage represent the countries that are home to the international students currently studying at UNB Saint John. The banners hanging above the stage represent the various faculties and/or schools in which students may study at UNB Saint John.

Academic Dress

It is part of the ceremony to wear the academic dress of the institution. It is for this reason that all of the students wear the gown, hood and cap, as do most of the University's faculty and officials. At UNB Saint John, the University's alumni are also invited to wear their academic attire and join the procession.

The Ceremonial Mace

The mace symbolizes the authority of the University to award degrees. Introduced in 1996, UNB's ceremonial mace features an antique silver cup atop a wooden shaft. The George II two-handled cup was given to the University in 1995 by S.A.H. Bridge, the great-great-grandson of Sir Howard Douglas, Bart. Sir Howard, Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick from 1823 to 1831, was instrumental in gaining the University's Royal charter.

The shaft was created by New Brunswick artisan Michiel Oudemans. Crafted from butternut, a wood indigenous to the province, it features elements of the UNB coat of arms and symbols of New Brunswick: the University motto, Sapere aude (Dare to know); a book of learning; beavers (in honour of Lord Beaverbrook, the University's first modern-day Chancellor); a galley; fiddleheads; and Atlantic salmon.

The mace is carried in the procession by the University Secretary.

President: I admit you to the degree of Master (Bachelor) in the University of New Brunswick.

ACADEMIC DRESS

All graduates and members of the academic procession are attired in the basic elements of academic dress – the academic robe, the hood and the mortar board or Tudor hat. The dress worn by each participant depends upon the academic level attained, with special attire for Bachelors, Masters and Doctors. While tradition has indicated the style or cut of the academic attire, each university amends certain details to suit its particular tastes and traditions.

Following is a guide to UNB's ceremonial dress:

GOWNS

Undergraduates	Plain black stuff, sleeveless
Bachelors	Black stuff falling below knee, with full sleeves reaching to the wrist and terminating in a point
Masters	Black silk or stuff falling below knee, with long sleeves with semi-circular cut bottom
Doctors	Scarlet cloth, faced with silk of the same colour as the lining of the hood worn

The University of New Brunswick Saint John makes every effort to ensure the accuracy of the graduation list in the Convocation program, however, cannot guarantee that the names of those graduates who appear after October 12, 2012 appear. Some students graduated from UNB Fredericton and have chosen to cross the stage at UNB Saint John's ceremony today. Their names, however, are not included in the graduation list printed in this program
