Spring Convocation

FRIDAY, MAY 20, 2016

At the beginning of Convocation the audience is requested to stand when the Academic Procession arrives and to remain standing until the close of the Petition by the President. At the close of the Convocation ceremony, following the singing of O Canada, the audience should remain standing until the Academic Procession has left the stage.

Graduates are asked to remain in their seats until the Convocation ceremonies are completed as a sign of respect and consideration for their classmates.

Although Latin has long ceased to be the language of instruction for all university courses, as it once was at Oxford and Cambridge, at Paris and Bologna, we have retained it at UNB for limited use on occasions of great academic solemnity, such as university convocations. The use of Latin today is a symbol of our academic descent from those earliest universities of medieval Europe and a humble reminder that the search for truth is both ancient and new.

A photograph will be taken of each graduate on the stage. On June 6, 2016 graduates will be able to download a print quality photograph at <http://www.flickr.com/photos/unbphotos/sets/>.

Following the ceremony, all are welcome to attend the traditional Convocation Tea Reception in the Baird Dining Room of the Thomas J. Condon Student Centre.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTGerald M. (Gary) Lawson, Doctor of Laws

Gary Lawson was born in Saint John, NB and graduated from Millidgeville North High School. He received two degrees from The University of New Brunswick: a Bachelor of Business Administration in 1976 (UNBSJ) and a Bachelor of Law in 1979 (UNBF). At the convocation ceremony in Saint John, he represented the graduating class as its valedictorian.

In 2012, Gary Lawson received his Queen's Counsel designation, and a Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal in recognition of his contribution to his community. Currently, he is a senior partner at Lawson Creamer where he focuses on business, estate planning, labour and employment law. He has contributed to his profession by teaching courses and giving seminars, as well as having served as chairman of the labour and employment law subsection of the New Brunswick branch of the Canadian Bar Association.

For over 15 years, Mr. Lawson has worked tirelessly on behalf of the underprivileged in Saint John, and has demonstrated a long history of community involvement. Of particular note, he is a former co-chair of the Business Community Anti-Poverty Initiative (BCAPI), which received national recognition for its innovative approach to anti-poverty solutions. His contributions to BCPAI have resulted in benefits to the community and the reduction of poverty in Saint John. Some of the projects with which BCPAI has been involved include: First Steps Housing Project, Partners Assisting Local Schools (PALS), Pro-Kids, the Early Learning Centre Project, and the Resource Center for Youth and Vibrant Communities Saint John. In 2014, Gary Lawson received the Red Cross Humanitarian Award for making a significant contribution to his community.

Mr. Lawson has served as President of the Saint John Board of Trade, chair and/or board member of organizations such as Hospice Greater Saint John, Rocmaura Nursing Home and the Villa Madonna retreat house. He has been involved with Hospice Greater Saint John for a number of years, and its residence hospice, Bobby's Hospice, honours his mother Catherine (Bobby) Lawson who was a 20-year hospice volunteer. Currently, he is a board member for both Hospice Greater Saint John and Enterprise Saint John, and continues to work with BCPAI.

Gary Lawson was recognized for his dedication to the University of New Brunswick in 2004 when he received the Faculty of Business Alumnus of the Year Award and again in 2006 when he received the Alumni Award of Honour. The latter award recognizes truly outstanding service and commitment to the University of New Brunswick and the Associated Alumni. In addition to supporting the university's Associated Alumni with his time and efforts, he, along with other members of his family, contributed to a UNB scholarship in memory of his late father, UNB alumnus Gerald B. Lawson.

ABOUT THE CONVOCATION CEREMONY

The Convocation Procession

The word "convocation" means "calling together," and UNB's convocation is truly a gathering of all individuals who are part of the University - students, professors, administrators, staff, alumni, families and friends. The ceremony starts with the procession of students, special guests, faculty, members of the Senate and of the Board of Governors, the honorary degree recipient(s), the President and Vice-Chancellor, the Chancellor and the Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick.

The Stage

All of the formalities around convocation take place on the stage. The stage is occupied by the Lieutenant-Governor, representatives of the Federal, Provincial and Municipal governments, the University's Chancellor, the President and Vice-Chancellor, members of the University's Board of Governors, University officials such as Vice-Presidents, Deans, University alumni, those holding emeritus status and the honorary degree recipient(s). The flags at the side of the stage represent the countries that are home to the international students currently studying at UNB Saint John. The banners displayed on the stage represent the various faculties and/or schools in which students may study at UNB Saint John.

Academic Dress

It is part of the ceremony to wear the academic dress of the institution. It is for this reason that all of the students wear the gown, hood and cap, as do most of the University's faculty and officials. At UNB Saint John, the University's alumni are also invited to wear their academic attire and join the procession.

The Ceremonial Mace

The mace symbolizes the authority of the University to award degrees. Introduced in 1996, UNB's ceremonial mace features an antique silver cup atop a wooden shaft. The George II two-handled cup was given to the University in 1995 by S.A.H. Bridge, the great-great-grandson of Sir Howard Douglas, Bart. Sir Howard, Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick from 1823 to 1831, was instrumental in gaining the University's Royal charter.

The shaft was created by New Brunswick artisan Michiel Oudemans. Crafted from butternut, a wood indigenous to the province, it features elements of the UNB coat of arms and symbols of New Brunswick: the University motto, Sapere aude (Dare to know); a book of learning; beavers (in honour of Lord Beaverbrook, the University's first modern-day Chancellor); a galley; fiddleheads; and Atlantic salmon.

The mace is carried in the procession by the University Secretary.

ACADEMIC DRESS

All graduates and members of the academic procession are attired in the basic elements of academic dress – the academic robe, the hood, and the mortar board or Tudor hat. The dress worn by each participant depends upon the academic level attained, with special attire for Bachelors, Masters and Doctors. While tradition has indicated the style or cut of the academic attire, each university amends certain details to suit its particular tastes and traditions.

Following is a guide to UNB's ceremonial dress:

GOWNS

Undergraduates	Plain black stuff, sleeveless
Bachelors	Black stuff falling below knee, with full sleeves reaching to the wrist and terminating in a point
Masters	Black silk or stuff falling below knee, with long sleeves with semi-circular cut bottom
Doctors	Scarlet cloth, faced with silk of the same colour as the lining of the hood worn

The University of New Brunswick Saint John makes every effort to ensure the accuracy of the graduation list in the Convocation program, however, cannot guarantee that the names of those graduates who appeal after May 11, 2016 appear. Some students graduated from UNB Fredericton and have chosen to cross the stage at UNB Saint John's ceremony today. Their names, however, are not included in the graduation list printed in this program.

Please note that the ceremony is being live-streamed and videotaped. UNB is committed to protecting personal information. If you have any privacy concerns, please contact the University Secretariat at secretariat@unb.ca or (506) 453-4613.
