

Spring Convocation

MAY 19, 2017
2 PM

G. FORBES ELLIOT ATHLETICS CENTRE

UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK SAINT JOHN

Spring Convocation

FRIDAY, MAY 19, 2017

At the beginning of Convocation, the audience is requested to stand when the Academic Procession arrives and to remain standing until the close of the Petition by the President. At the close of the Convocation ceremony, following the singing of O Canada, the audience should remain standing until the Academic Procession has left the stage.

Graduates are asked to remain in their seats until the Convocation ceremonies are completed as a sign of respect and consideration for their classmates.

Although Latin has long ceased to be the language of instruction for all university courses, as it once was at Oxford and Cambridge, at Paris and Bologna, we have retained it at UNB for limited use on occasions of great academic solemnity, such as university convocations. The use of Latin today is a symbol of our academic descent from those earliest universities of medieval Europe and a humble reminder that the search for truth is both ancient and new.

A photograph will be taken of each graduate on the stage by UNB's official photographer.

On June 5, 2017 graduates will be able to download a print quality photograph at <http://www.flickr.com/photos/unbphotos/sets/>.

This is a very special day for graduates and their families. We appreciate that you will want to document it with photographs, but we ask that you do so in a respectful manner. Please do not block the view of other guests and graduates sitting behind you, and please do not block the movement around the room.

Following the ceremony, all are welcome to attend the traditional Convocation Tea Reception in the Baird Dining Room of the Thomas J. Condon Student Centre.

Andrew C. Garrod holds a Bachelor of Arts (1961) and a Master of Arts (1967) from Oxford University. He holds a Master of Education (1976) and a doctoral degree in human development and psychology (1982) from Harvard University.

Currently, Dr. Garrod is professor emeritus of Education at Dartmouth College in Hanover, New Hampshire. During his 25 years at the college, he was chair of the Education Department twice, was Director of the Teacher Education program for eight years, and taught courses in adolescence, moral development and contemporary issues in U.S. education. He was awarded Dartmouth College's Distinguished Teaching Award in 1991 and 2009.

Previous to his work at Dartmouth College, he held positions at the Universities of Victoria and Manitoba. For a number of years, he conducted a research project in Bosnia and Herzegovina on forgiveness, faith development and moral reasoning. He has also directed six bilingual Shakespearean productions in Bosnia and Herzegovina that have played in Mostar and elsewhere in the Balkans; directed a trilingual production of Romeo and Juliet in Kigali, Rwanda; and directed numerous bilingual Shakespearean plays and Broadway musicals in the Marshall Islands. From 2000 - 2014, he directed a volunteer teaching program in the Marshall Islands in the Central Pacific.

Dr. Garrod co-founded Youth Bridge Global in 2004, a non-profit organization, with the goal of providing youth theatre experiences in war-torn and under-resourced parts of the world. He has been the Program Director for the Dartmouth Volunteer Teaching Program, which began in 2000 with a view to contribute to education in the Marshall Islands. Dr. Garrod also serves on the Executive Committee for the Summer Enrichment Program at Dartmouth College.

His recent publications include the coedited books Mixed: Multiracial College Students Tell Their Life Stories; Growing up Muslim: Muslim College Students in America Tell Their Life Stories; I Am Where I Come From: Native American College Students and Graduates Tell Their Life Stories; and the chapter "Bridging the Divide with Shakespeare: Theatre as Moral Education in Bosnia and Herzegovina" in The Reflexive Teaching Artist.

For 16 years, during the 1960s and 70s, Dr. Garrod taught at Saint John High School where he chaired the English Department and won provincial and national awards for his Shakespearean student productions. To recognize his contributions, members of the school's alumni established a scholarship in his name at The University of New Brunswick.

ABOUT THE CONVOCATION CEREMONY

The Convocation Procession

The word "convocation" means "calling together," and UNB's convocation is truly a gathering of all individuals who are part of the University - students, professors, administrators, staff, alumni, families and friends. The ceremony starts with the procession of students, special guests, faculty, members of the Senate and of the Board of Governors, the honorary degree recipient(s), the President and Vice-Chancellor, the Chancellor and the Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick.

The Stage

All of the formalities around convocation take place on the stage. The stage is occupied by the Lieutenant-Governor, representatives of the Federal, Provincial and Municipal governments, the University's Chancellor, the President and Vice-Chancellor, members of the University's Board of Governors, University officials such as Vice-Presidents, Deans, University alumni, those holding emeritus status and the honorary degree recipient(s). The flags at the side of the stage represent the countries that are home to the international students currently studying at UNB Saint John. The banners displayed on the stage represent the various faculties and/or schools in which students may study at UNB Saint John.

Academic Dress

It is part of the ceremony to wear the academic dress of the institution. It is for this reason that all of the students wear the gown, hood and cap, as do most of the University's faculty and officials. At UNB Saint John, the University's alumni are also invited to wear their academic attire and join the procession.

The Ceremonial Mace

The mace symbolizes the authority of the University to award degrees. Introduced in 1996, UNB's ceremonial mace features an antique silver cup atop a wooden shaft. The George II two-handled cup was given to the University in 1995 by S.A.H. Bridge, the great-great-grandson of Sir Howard Douglas, Bart. Sir Howard, Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick from 1823 to 1831, was instrumental in gaining the University's Royal charter.

The shaft was created by New Brunswick artisan Michiel Oudemans. Crafted from butternut, a wood indigenous to the province, it features elements of the UNB coat of arms and symbols of New Brunswick: the University motto, Sapere aude (Dare to know); a book of learning; beavers (in honour of Lord Beaverbrook, the University's first modern-day Chancellor); a galley; fiddleheads; and Atlantic salmon.

The mace is carried in the procession by the University Secretary.

ACADEMIC DRESS

All graduates and members of the academic procession are attired in the basic elements of academic dress - the academic robe, the hood, and the mortar board or Tudor hat. The dress worn by each participant depends upon the academic level attained, with special attire for Bachelors, Masters and Doctors. While tradition has indicated the style or cut of the academic attire, each university amends certain details to suit its particular tastes and traditions.

Following is a guide to UNB's ceremonial dress:

GOWNS

Undergraduates	Plain black stuff, sleeveless
Bachelors	Black stuff falling below knee, with full sleeves reaching to the wrist and terminating in a point
Masters	Black silk or stuff falling below knee, with long sleeves with semi-circular cut bottom
Doctors	Scarlet cloth, faced with silk of the same colour as the lining of the hood worn

The University of New Brunswick Saint John makes every effort to ensure the accuracy of the graduation list in the Convocation program, however, cannot guarantee that the names of those graduates who appear after May 10, 2017 appear. Some students graduated from UNB Fredericton and have chosen to cross the stage at UNB Saint John's ceremony today. Their names, however, are not included in the graduation list printed in this program.

Please note that the ceremony is being live-streamed and videotaped. UNB is committed to protecting personal information. If you have any privacy concerns, please contact the University Secretariat at secretariat@unb.ca or (506) 453-4613.
